

Callahan Elementary School Learning Compact 2019-2020

We know that learning does not begin and end at school. Parents are the first and most important teacher of their child. When we work together as partners, your child will succeed, reach his/her individual potential, and become a contributing member of society.

We are all committed to _____ and his/her progress in school; we are going to commit to a comprehensive system of support to assure this outcome. We will combine effort, interest, and motivation to promote his/her achievement.

Teacher Commitments:

1. I will maintain a safe, positive learning environment for students.
2. I will treat all children with respect and fairness.
3. I will serve as a role model for positive character development.
4. I will conference with parents as needed.
5. I will attend training sessions to strengthen and expand my educational knowledge.
6. I will return parent emails, parent letters, and phone calls within 48 hours.
7. I am committed to maximizing individual potential and developing life-long learners who will be contributing members in a global society.
