

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!

January 23-27, 2023

School Name: HMSHS

Monday, January 23rd

Bingo With Books- Faculty and Staff will submit titles of books they are currently reading/favorite book. Bingo cards will be made with these titles. The cards will be given to students. Students will go around campus asking faculty and staff the book they are currently reading. Once a student has BINGO, he/she will take the card to the library for a prize.

Teachers will share with their classes what they are currently reading and discuss how reading books opens a whole world of imagination and learning.

Tuesday,
January 24th

Book Tasting in the ELA classrooms- students will present a book they have enjoyed reading over the last year. (The assignment will have been given in December to prepare for the Book Tasting). They choose the way they want to present from a choice board provided by the teacher.

Bingo With Books- continue the Bingo card game from Monday

Wednesday,
January 25th

“Drown Out the Reading Blues” Everyone on campus is encouraged to dress up in beach/pool wear and talk.

Book Tasting in the ELA classrooms (continued from Tuesday). Teachers will pick the top 2 presenters from each class to present to the school on Thursday.
