The National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC) invites students and parents to explore the college search process at the Jacksonville National College Fair, held on Saturday, October 12, 2019 from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m. at the Prime F. Osborn III Convention Center in Jacksonville, FL.

The event, sponsored by NACAC and hosted by the Southern Association for College Admission Counseling (SACAC), is free and open to the public.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet one-on-one with admission representatives from public and private colleges and universities, including some international institutions. Both two- and four-year schools will be featured. Gap year programs have also been invited to exhibit in response to the growing number of students interested in expanding their personal, practical, and professional horizons between high school and college.

Complete information about the fair, including free student registration, can be found at www.nacacfairs.org/jacksonville.

More information about the Jacksonville National College Fair — including directions, a list of colleges exhibiting at the event, and tips to help students prepare for the fair — is available online at www.nacacfairs.org/jacksonville. You may also email collegefairs@nacacnet.org or call 800/822-6285.
