Advisory
8:40-9:00

Students are wired to socialize, assert themselves, and take risks.

The purpose of advisory is to advise students on academics, social interactions, and planning for the future.

FERNANDINA BEACH MIDDLE SCHOOL RULES & REGULATIONS

- 1. Disrespect- Students are expected to demonstrate courtesy and respect to faculty members, staff members, peers, and guests on the school campus and at any school activity.
- 2. Fighting- Fighting or aggressive behavior towards others is prohibited.
- 3. Destruction of School Property- Students must take care of school property and any student who destroys or defaces school property will be held responsible for restoration of that property. Parents will be expected to make financial restitution.
- 4. Intimidation- It is expected that students will not intimidate others.
- 5. Food Items (food, candy, nuts, etc.) Students are not able sell food items at school during the regular school day, to conform to federal guidelines governing our school lunch program. This is not intended to prevent students from selling such items after school hours for fund-raising purposes.

4. Defiance toward School Board Employees.- Students are expected to follow directions given by school employees.
