

NASSAU COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Specific Material Objection Form

Part I: Steps for filing a formal objection to a state adopted instructional material.

The following procedures shall apply to all objections to instructional materials adopted by the School Board:

1. The parent or a resident of the County, as defined by Florida Statutes, may contest the district school board's adoption of a specific instructional material by filing a written objection using the form that is available on the District website.
2. The form must be signed by the parent or resident of the county, include the required contact information, and state the objection to the instructional material based on the criteria stated in Florida Statutes s. 1006.31(2) or 1006.40(3)(d).
3. The written objection must be filed within thirty (30) calendar days of the adoption of the material. A complainant who does not complete and return the form within the required time shall receive no consideration. The statement shall include the following information: a. Author, compiler, or editor; b. Publisher; c. Title; d. Reason for objection; e. Page number of each item challenged; and f. Signature, address and telephone number of person making the complaint.
4. Within thirty (30) days after the initial thirty-day period has expired, the School Board shall conduct at least one public hearing before an unbiased and qualified hearing officer on all petitions timely received during the thirty-day time period. The petitioner(s) shall be notified in writing of the date and time of the hearing at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing. The hearing must provide sufficient procedural protections to allow each petitioner an adequate and fair opportunity to be heard and present evidence to the hearing officer.
5. The contested material shall be made available to the public online at least seven (7) days before the hearing.
6. The decision of the School Board, after convening a hearing, shall be final and not subject to further review or petition.
