Disclaimer for Nassau County School District Social Media Sites

The purpose of this site is to disseminate information on specific Nassau County School District topics. It is not intended to be a public forum. Comments posted to this site will be monitored. The district reserves the right to delete submissions that:

1. contain abusive, vulgar, or inappropriate language;
2. include personal attacks of any kind;
3. easily identify students and/or staff in defamatory, abusive, or generally negative terms;
4. contain offensive comments that target or disparage any ethnic, racial or religious groups;
5. are spam or include links to other sites;
6. advocate illegal activity;
7. promote certain services, products, or political organizations;
8. infringe on copyrights or trademarks;
9. use personally identifiable medical information.

Florida has a very broad public records law. As a result, any written communication created or received by Nassau County School District officials and employees will be made available to the public and media, upon request, unless otherwise exempt. If you do not want your comment and subsequent identifying information released in response to a public records request, do not comment or post to this site. Instead, please contact the Nassau County School District by phone or in writing. Under Florida law, email addresses are public records. If you do not want your email address released in response to a public records request, do not send electronic mail to a work location or employee.
